1. Practical information

1. Application preparation

The application must include the following information:

- This document, completed and signed (in English or French),
- A cover letter explaining the reasons why your organization is applying for Afnic accreditation,
- The completed and signed registrar identification form, accompanied by the company's Kbis or the equivalent for a foreign company,
- Any supporting documents to illustrate or complete your answers.

2. Evaluation of answers to the “Compliance Assessment” questionnaire

- A minimum requirement is indicated for certain questions. If this minimum requirement is not met, accreditation cannot be issued.
- All questions must be answered, otherwise accreditation will not be granted.
- Answers must be consistent.

3. Directory of accredited registrars

The information provided in the registration form for the registrar directory will be published on the Afnic website at the following address: www.afnic.fr.

At the request of a third party, Afnic will communicate the present accreditation file. You will be notified of this request and will have the opportunity to specify which confidential data may not be transmitted.

4. Accreditation data update

Accreditation is granted on the basis of the information you provide in this file. Afnic will contact you every two years to ask you to update the accreditation information in its possession. In the meantime, it is essential that you notify Afnic of any changes.

Whatever the reason for the request to modify your accreditation data, Afnic will re-examine your file.
